ABOUT THE BOOK

Students hate it. Parents wonder if it's worth the tears, frustration, and nightly arguments. Teachers debate whether it's really helpful or just busywork that consumes their precious time. One thing everyone can agree on is that homework is a contentious topic. In Ditch That Homework, Matt Miller and Alice Keeler discuss the pros and cons of homework, why teachers assign it, and what life could look like without it. As they evaluate the research and share parent and teacher insights, the authors explore some of the benefits for ditching homework: Better education for all students, Reduced stress for families, More intentionality with lesson planning, Increased love of learning, More time for teachers to focus on learning at school and enjoying their after-school hours. And that's just the beginning. Miller and Keeler offer a convincing case for ditching--or at a minimum greatly Read more
